Further saving might be effected by separate awards for removing trees and resetting curbs. As a general thing, it may not be practicable to separate contracts for concrete foundations and asphalt or other surfaces. It is, however, of interest that in six contracts awarded June 22, 1909, there were differences aggregating 13,606.28 between the items for concrete foundations in the accepted proposals and the low bids, divided as follows: The reason for the award of the concrete curb and gutter contract for the year 1908, as shown in Exhibit O, is not apparent. The advertisement for bids on concrete curb and gutters, water table and brick gutters for the year 1908, elicited proposals from C. B. Quinn and Company and M. Larkin. The city engineer recommended the acceptance of the high bid of M. Larkin throughout, assigning as a reason for the rejection of C. B. Quinn and Company's low bid on concrete curb and gutters the fact that they had not bid on water table and brick gutters. The legislative council, however, ordered that the bids be readvertised, and bids were again submitted by the same two firms. Although it had been held that a proposal which did not include all items was invalid, it did not prevent the award being split. C. B. Quinn and Company secured the contract for concrete curb and gutters, and M. Larkin...
