The story is set in Paris, France, in the first half of the 19th Century. It tells the story of Desplein, a Surgeon with unsurpassed skill. He strongly avows atheism but still he attends a Catholic mass four times each year. Horace Bianchon is another respected surgeon who once studied under Desplein sees him entering a church and decides to watch Desplein to find out why he apparently prays and hears mass. Bourgeat is a poor man who helped Desplein when he was nothing but a poor medical student. Sacristan is the Roman Catholic priest responsible for preparing and maintaining the churches vestments and altar and for seeing to the day-to-day operation of the sacristy, a room in a church behind the main altar.
