GRITS GRACE

Paperback. Condition: New. 188 pages. EXCERPT: Since Aunt Mickie had moved to Detroit four years ago, shed sent us eighteen pictures of herself standing next to buildings tall enough to eavesdrop on clouds. Mama looked at them so often that she smudged them with her sweaty fingers and bent their corners. One day, Mama was holding one of the photos and she said, Seems like Mickie got a different smile since she left Georgia. I stood over Mamas shoulder, staring...
