We were generally hospitably received and treated wherever we went ashore, but at some few hamlets, upon our refusing to gratify an impertinent curiosity, and tc. , attempts were made to detain us. None of them succeeded, however, as we were determined to preserve our freedom at almost any sacrifice; but we were more than once compelled to beat a hasty retreat to our boat, and sometimes smartly skir mishing by the way, with sticks, stones, Stc. The natural beauties of the country entirely surpass our feeble powers of description. Dense forests, and shady groves, composed of every variety of trees, from those of enormous size, to the light and graceful palm, contrasted finely...
