Excerpt from State and Federal Marketing Activities and Other Economic Work, Vol. 8: A Review of Current Service, Research and Related Projects Issued Weekly by the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.; January 5, 1928 Enforcement of the Produce Agency Act by the United States Department of Agriculture has been made possible by presidential approval of the First Deficiency Bill which makes available to the department $10,000 for enforcement of the act for the balance of the fiscal year ending June The Produce Agency Act became effective July 1, 1927, but funds for its enforcement were not provided because of the failure of the deficiency bill in the last Congress. The Produce Agency Act affects transactions in perishable farm products in interstate commerce. It prohibits dumping of such products without good and sufficient cause; any false report or statement to the shipper regarding the handling, condition, quality, quantity. Sale or disposition of such products, and failure to truly and correctly account for shipment. The act is to be administered in the Bureau of Agri...
