AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2007. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Whether you are a new supervisor for the first time, or an MBA graduate on your first job out of college, or the young entrepreneur of a market penetration business, or a Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of a large corporation, one of the most challenging problems or issue you will be challenged to deal with is those that are people-focused. 90 of all major problems that authority figures face that affect productivity, morale, and teamwork are People problems. So whether you are new to the business of managing and supervising people or an experienced professional with little-to-no time to train subordinates or junior executives, this book will give you a solid foundation for dealing with some of the major people issues in any type of business by the examples you set. This book uses a short story in the form of a parable, and a combination of to teach five critical principles for dealing with the really troublesome and often organization destroying people problems 1) Learn the ropes to skip and the ropes to jump that are associated with the art of critical decision making, 2) Learn and understand the factors that impact a person s desire to make a dedicated, personal commitment to an organization s mission or vision. 3) Learn how to use the Johari Window Model to open or unblock communication channels and to effectively address issues of trust and integrity. 4) Learn how to effectively deal with the tough and touchy dysfunctional communication problems most commonly associated with organizational grapevines: Rumors, Gossip, and Backbiting. 5) Learn to use the most overlooked tool in developing others for management and supervisory position - how to organize and conduct meetings effectively....
