University Club of Chicago: Floor Plans, Illustrative Sketches and Brief Descriptions of the New Building of the Club (Classic Reprint) (Paperback)

By Unknown Author

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from University Club of Chicago: Floor Plans, Illustrative Sketches and Brief Descriptions of the New Building of the Club The new building of the University Club of Chicago is located at the northwest corner of Michigan Avenue and Monroe Street. It has a south frontage of one hundred and seventy-one feet on Monroe Street and an east frontage of sixty-eight feet on Michigan Avenue. The exterior walls arc of Bedford stone; the roof is of green tile. Every modern device has been utilized to make the building as nearly fireproof as possible. The style of architecture fortunately chosen by the architects, Messrs. Holabird Roche, is the English Collegiate, sometimes described as Tudor Gothic. In making this selection the architects followed the line of academic tradition. How to adapt this style, associated as it is with comparatively low buildings, to the requirements of a congested portion of a great city, was a formidable problem. How successfully the architects have met this difficulty must be left to critics of architecture to decide. The interior arrangements of a commodious club-house arc such as...
