Mr. F. H. Taylor, F.R.E.S., F.Z.S., President, in the Chair. The minutes of the preceding Annual General Meeting (25th March, 1942) were read and confirmed. Presidential Address. Unavoidably, the continuation of the second world war has exercised an influence on the affairs of the Society during the past year. In the first place, preoccupation of members with more immediately pressing problems has caused a marked reduction in the number of scientific papers submitted to the Society for publication, while the majority of the papers submitted were shorter than usual. The Society has had a difficult financial year, and, with the necessity for reinvestment of trust funds at lower interest rates, there appears to be no immediate prospect of improvement in the general financial situation. When the books were closed for audit on 28th...
