Photographer Gil is on an extended grey gap-year, working in the London hospital to which Vivian brings Irene for emergency treatment; together they try to establish calm amid the chaos. Irene is thrilled with her guardian angels , they less so with her ongoing interest in their lives. Gil has a girlfriend, living in the same building as him, and a troublesome family back home. Thirty-something Vivian has a high-flying boyfriend, an irascible father and a demanding job. But they keep finding reasons to spend time together in the run up to Christmas. And still there is Irene, intent on filling the holes in her life.
