Once there, she is introduced to the dreamy Gabriel Haden who is her boarder until her home is ready for move-in. She spends the entire first night trying to figure out why she is naturally drawn to him when she hasn't had any interest in any man in years. Then she is informed that her job is not what it seems. She has been hurled into the middle of a city in the throes of turmoil due to gang violence and drug deals gone bad. She knows she can't do it alone, but how is she going to clean up Savannah by herself? Gabriel Haden is taken aback when he opens his front door to Andrea Bell, his new boss and a woman he knows he can love. But Gabriel has a secret past that includes Andrea and she has no clue.
