

Designing Truth (Paperback)

By Toni Petrinoivch

Infinity Publishing (PA), 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The City of Zim was originally built as a physical, stationary portal for communication with a number of gods. Many of the architects were diviners of ancient knowledge and wisdom. The design was intended to free human consciousness from attachment to the physical body. Joe chose this location for all of these attributes plus the air of mystery that enshrouded the structures. Here he would introduce Nancy, Don and Paul to the next steps in their shamanic training, begun by Talish several months previous. And while Talish had nurtured her students through their learning, Joe would challenge them to survive.
