Giangiaco Feltrinelli Editore, 2006. Book Condition: new. Milano, 2006; br., pp. 140, cm 14x22. (Serie bianca). Nel giugno del 1940 l'esercito italiano attacca la Francia sul confine alpino: i francesi sono già prostrati dalla disfatta appena subita a opera dei tedeschi, ma i fanti italiani avanzano con enorme fatica e l'equipaggiamento inadatto miete più vittime, per assideramento, delle pallottole nemiche. "Alla prova della montagna il fascismo era già finito scrive Bocca. L'autore ha girato il mondo e all'Italia ha dedicato diversi libri: qui ritorna alla "patria alpina", alla provincia incastonata tra le montagne da cui proviene e che diventa il crogiuolo in cui si mettono alla prova gli uomini e le idee. Dalla grande schiatta piemontese dei maestri di antifascismo - i Gobetti, i Galimberti, gli Einaudi, i Bianco - al rapporto con in valligiani nella Guerra di Liberazione, alla scoperta dell'eredità occitanica tra Piemonte e Francia, dalla provincia eterna che produce buoni alimenti ma è politicamente sempre rivolta al passato, fino alle montagne amatissime in cui ha passato la sua giovinezza di forte sciatore e che sono ora anch'esse vittime dell'industrializzazione, trasformate in palestre meccanizzate per il tempo libero.
