Among those who had selected him as their spiritual guide, it may be interesting to mention that celebrated Irish priest, the Abbe Edgeworth, who attended Louis XVI at the scaffold. The three associates Of Father N agot were Fathers Garnier, Levadoux, and Tessier. Father An toine Garnier was then 29 years Old. He had taught divinity with great success in the Seminary of Lyons, and was a remarkable linguist. Father Michel Leva doux had been for many years a director of the Semi nary Of Bourges. Father Jean Tessier, born in 1758 in the diocese of Angers, had taught theology for two years at Viviers, when, in 1791, he was invited by Father Emery to join this little band. In order that the projected Seminary might be Opened immediately, five Seminarians accompanied the pioneer Sulpicians. The travelers having chartered an American vessel, sailed from St. Malo in the month of March, and reached Baltimore July 10th, 1791. On the same ship there was a young Frenchman, then misled by Vol tairian infidelity, but who, later on, consecrating his brilliant imagination and fascinating style to the service Of religion, rendered illustrious the name of Chateau briand.
