Knowledge is the powerful and that is one of the greatest thing we need to be all that God wants us to be, to have what God wants us to have and to become all that He wants us to become in life. So many people today wonder if marriage really worth it any more, given the spiralling rate of divorce and marital crisis generally in our generation. The truth is that the rate of divorce, separation and marital crisis in our days is unbelievable. God does not want you to be another victim or casualty. Many marriages are not working today because they live on assumptions, they assumed that they know all that they need to know until it becomes so obvious that they do not have the requisite knowledge required to have a good marriage. Many are not aware of Biblical principles that can make their marriage work while others who knows are not ready to do what they already know they should do. Many are so frustrated because they went into marriage with unrealistic expectations or because they were not ready to accept the responsibility. Marriage does not work by itself, we make up our minds to make it work This book reveals to us the covenant demands or the divine strategies for peaceful family life. This book is essential for everyone who really wants to know what it takes to make their relationship work. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
