

Annual Report, 1971 (Classic Reprint) (Paperback)

By Ashland New Hampshire

Forgotten Books, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Annual Report, 1971 The Board of Selectmen is pleased to submit this annual report for the year ending December 31, 1971. The purpose of the report will be an evaluation of the town s fiscal and economic condition, to relate a few minor achievements and to point up the necessity of making many more through the cooperation of all town officials, employees and taxpayers. We recommend a careful perusal of all department and departmental reports included herewith. Such a study should give the individual taxpayer an in-depth understanding of the manner in which your town operates and also an insight into some of the mounting problems it faces. We purchased a new truck and snow plow for the Highway Department, a welding machine for the use of all departments. The cote-goud land was purchased in June and the landfill dump is waiting for development and operation as soon as the necessary money for equipment to operate it is appropriated. The old town dump, of necessity, could not be closed this year. The money appropriated for this project...
