Contemporary Romance Mary found it very interesting that she was in the college football state, also known as Texas. She always considered herself the chubby or full figured girl and also very plain. However, her perspective is changed when two hot football players, Houston and Patrick, happen to be in her agricultural lab class. It is just the three of them and part of the class entails working on a ranch. It is her dreams come true as she has been lusting after Houston ever since she first saw him with out his helmet on the football sidelines with his dark good looks. Now her dreams are going to come true in the most erotic way, which she never thought possible. With not just one football god, but two.
