Excellent outline/presentation, abstract: Introduction With the dynamic nature of the global business environment and increasing competitive pressure, organizations are shifting from product-focused strategy to consumer-focused strategy. With the advent of internet, consumers are becoming more knowledgeable and more aware of the various opportunities available to them. The internet has provided easy access to new products and access to more options leading to an expanded competitive advantage for the consumers, greatly enhancing their choices, value and pricing flexibilities in many cases. Customer retention and loyalty has become a nightmare to many organizations, and organizations are now involved in what can be termed 'a relationship competition' between organizations and their clients, as customers can switch from one product to the other at the click of the computer mouse. In order to counter this phenomenon organizations are investing heavily...
