Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Gabriel Infante, a mystic who could walk on water, levitate in prayer, see the future, heal the sick, expel demons, and even raise the dead, among other things, was a Catholic priest for a decade, but God released him from his vow to serve him in that capacity. Now married to Theresa Reynolds, who also quit her life as a religious sister, and with two children to raise, the Miracle Weaver has settled down in the small village of San Pepe, an idyllic little place Jose and Maria Infante, Gabriel s parents, helped to create in the state of Guanajuato, Mexico. As a layman, Gabriel worked first in house remodeling and later in hotel maintenance in San Francisco, California. Providentially, he became a bodyguard and chauffeur for a wealthy man in Jacksonville, Florida. Being laid off from that job, he took his family to Mexico, and his parents coaxed him into staying in San Pepe with them. With the patronage of a rich California widow, the talented Texan became a professional artist and showed his work in Los Angeles. While there, he also became a one-time action movie star, but not liking the life in the spotlight, he went back to live in the quiet village of San Pepe where he became a wrecker driver. Even as a layman working in an assortment of different occupations, the man continued his miraculous ministry and his constant battle against the hordes of Satan. He performed the exorcism of a young widow in the City of Leon. Being a man after God s own heart, he was also empowered by the Holy Spirit to become the World s Greatest Athlete when he...
