As I have understood over the years there are two basic views. One, is that it is all the work of God, and we merely exercise faith to enter. It is immediately a finished work-Heaven awaits, come Hell or high water, or complete sinfulness and foolishness on our part. In the end it doesn't matter because we've been saved by God's grace. The other view is that we can lose our salvation through sinful living, and I suppose false teaching. I have a third view, and I will endeavor to lay out the Scriptures so you can see it as well. I certainly did not set out to present what could be seen as a compromise between the once saved always saved crowd, and those who teach that you can lose your salvation, but in essence that is what I have done. While in one sense it is a compromise of these two views, and holds similarities to both of them, it is completely different from both of them. You would have to abandon them to embrace what I will...
