

The Path: Leveraging Operations in a Complex and Chaotic World

By Shridhar Lolla

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 262 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 5.9in. x 0.8in. A vast majority of attempts by organizations to sustain growth in an ever more complex and chaotic world has ended into painful, costly and long drawn trade-offs and burn-outs. The Path presents a game changing way of leveraging operations to achieve breakthrough performance in today's world. It exhorts organizations to improve the process of improvement itself than rushing to master every new technique of improvement. It proposes that an organization must build capability to find its own path of operational excellence, one step at a time. Narrated in the form of a business novel, The Path enlivens real life actions from operational war zone. In fact, as a book, it was co-created by over 100 practitioners of operational management. By taking on today's business problems head on, The Path also provides a business solution to one of the biggest evils of the society, the brazen non-availability and sky-rocketing cost of medicines. While the book has been crafted for general reader of business management, it will be of direct use to practitioners and influencers of operational performance. This item...
