Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Address of Governor Perham to the Legislature of the State of Maine, January 1871 Gentlemen of the Senate and House of Representatives: In obedience to constitutional requirement and the people s summons, we have met to consider the condition and interests of the State, and to consecrate our best efforts to her service. It is fitting, that on the threshold of our duties, we acknowledge with devout and reverent hearts the merciful Providence that has vouchsafed to us, as a people, so many blessings, and humbly implore the guidance of Him whose wisdom is alone sufficient to direct, and without whose blessing our labors cannot be crowned with success. Condition Of The Country. We have cause for congratulation in the general prosperity of the country. We are at peace with all nations. The waste and devastation of the war are being rapidly repaired. The memories of those who fell in defence of the country are treasured in the grateful hearts of the loyal people. Their sacred dust is being watched over and protected by the assiduous care of the nations deepest devotion. Their dependents, and those who were maimed or otherwise disabled, are receiving the pledges of the peoples inexpressible gratitude. The determination of our people to allow no repudiation, but to pay honestly every dollar of our honest debts, has been fully affirmed, resulting in the establishment of more confidence in our national securities, and the way for the exchange of outstanding bonds for others bearing a lower rate of interest. The average price of gold, as compared with currency for the year just closed, has been twenty percent, lower than the previous year,...
