Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A series of widely publicized food safety problems, including concerns about adulterated pet food ingredients and farmed seafood from China, foodborne illness outbreaks linked to the bacterium E. coli O157: H7 on leafy produce from California, and a national recall of peanut butter due to Salmonella contamination, have made food safety a top issue for a number of lawmakers in the 110th Congress. Several Members have introduced bills to alter the current U.S. food safety system and/or increase spending, which they assert is needed to meet current obligations to protect consumers from unsafe food. This report describes a number of these measures. Reorganization of Food Safety Responsibilities. The Government Accountability Office has concluded that the current federal safety system should be fundamentally re-examined because it is fragmented and inefficient, threatening food safety. H.R. 1148 and S. 654 would consolidate federal food safety responsibilities under a new, independent Food Safety Administration. Food Import Oversight. U.S. food imports have increased significantly in recent years, raising questions about whether U.S. safeguards, which generally were created at a time when most Americans obtained their foods domestically, sufficiently protect public health. H.R. 2997 and S. 1776 would require foreign countries and establishments to receive U.S. certifications .
