What a lovely sight The broad blue surface of thy waters show; Reflecting from their bosom, sparkling bright, The blazing wreath d Apollo s radiant glow, Who, as his coursers mount to mid-heaven slow, Pours down the golden day, in gorgeous beam. Upon the blooming earth outspread below; Whilst all the distant waving tree-tops seem Like to the bowers of the Elysian fields to gleam. II. Still and unmoved thy tranquil waters rest; (Calm as a new-born infants peaceful sleep. When slumb ing at the smiling mother s breast, ) No rippling breezes o er them murmuring creep; No raging tempests in their fury sweep, And dash the billows with tremendous wrath Until they roll fierce waves on ocean deep, And threaten e en with rage increased, to scathe The azure dome remote, where lies Apollo s path.
