

Because We Wanted To!: Two Women, a Dream and a Ranch Called Singing Acres (Paperback)

By Carol Ann Wilson

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Why would two girls come out here to a rugged part of Colorado, buy an old dilapidated ranch, and raise horses? This question came to Margaret Locarnini and Clara Reida more than once, and their response forms the heart of this story. Meeting at Girl Scout Camp while working as riding instructors, Margaret from Oakland, California and Clara from Rago, Kansas, they discovered they both held the dream of raising horses in the Colorado Rockies. By joining forces they believed they could make their dream come true. Undaunted by the many barriers women faced as recently as 1965—simply acquiring loans without husbands signing for them as one shocking example—they moved forward, dotting the i and crossing the t on irrelevant as far as convention was concerned. They named their ranch Singing Acres to honor their deep love of singing and the way the land sang to them. Facing numerous hardships with courage and humor, they cultivated friendships; raised beautiful horses; helped countless others; and became the heart of a community. Carol Ann Wilson is the author of award-winning, Still Point of...
