Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from In Senate, April 13, 1910, Vol. 42: Sixty-Fifth Annual Report of the Prison Association of New York Four questions relating to the treatment of crime and the inmates of correctional institutions in this State demand the special attention of your honorable body during the session of 1910. 1. Shall boys and young men between the ages of 16 and 21 who have been convicted of misdemeanors continue to be sent to penitentiaries and jails (or in New York city, to the workhouse), or shall there be provided by the State a thoroughly modern reformatory for misdemeanants? 2. Shall tramps and vagrants over the age of 21 continue to be sent to jails and penitentiaries (or in New York city, to the workhouse), or shall there be provided by the State for such tramps and vagrants an industrial farm colony for their detention, humane discipline, instruction and reformation? 3. Shall the county jails and county penitentiaries of this State continue to be mainly centers of idleness and of education in crime, or shall there be introduced into such penitentiaries as do not now maintain industries, and into the county jails, productive industries, the products of which may be used for the benefit of the State or the political divisions thereof, or for the use of public institutions owned or managed or under the control of the State or the political divisions thereof? 4. Shall persons convicted of intoxication continue to be discharged, fined small amounts, or sent to the workhouse, in the city of New York, or shall the city of New York establish a comprehensive system of treating inebriates, with a view to checking the...
