ONE STOLEN KISS

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 262 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.7in. Christie Harding is a rising star of Manhattan society. With her boutique gallery about to reveal the identity of the controversial artist Paparazzka at a gala charity event for the A-list, and her very private relationship with PR guru Derek Goldman sure to be made official at any time, life could not be going better for the former Swiss finishing school debutante. Adrik Maksimov remembers her from Switzerland eleven years ago, for a very different reason. Then the reckless young heir to a Russian shipping fortune, he had gatecrashed the debutantes ball while in the country to deposit some diamonds in a Swiss bank, on a mission of trust from his father. Finding himself inextricably distracted by the younger Christie Harding, the diamonds vanished, and he was left tied to a bed in an exclusive chateau with only a kiss to remember her by. Guessing that the artist Paparazzka is Christie herself, when the opportunity for revenge arises, Adrik gatecrashes his way into her life a second time - only for Christie to out him as the artist instead. But in the obligatory public speech that follows, he neatly turns the tables on her by announcing, to Christies horror, that they are engaged. Blanked by Derek Goldman, and anticipating career death in Manhattan as a consequence, Christie agrees to leave New York with Adrik for his home in Londons Holland Park and to play out the fake engagement for their own mutual image benefit in the press. But how long is the charade intended to last And how does Adrik mean to even up the score between them As plans to entertain the media with their courtship take them on...
