

Spreading HIS Fame

By Kris Segrest D. Min

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 140 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.3in. Every night on television, we see shows like TMZ and Extra that do nothing but chase famous people around documenting the most mundane detail. Celebrity culture has become insane. The fact that we even know who the Kardashians are is a testimony to our pursuit of trivial things. The Bible says God demands to be made famous. His glory demands it. As a church and a people, we want to spread His fame in everything we do. Only that which is eternal is going to last. And only that which is eternal is worth our lives. But having a vision of spreading His fame has a direct effect a mission. We spread His fame by making disciples. Not only is disciple making prescribed and commanded by Jesus, but it is also the natural by-product of our affections and loyalties. I live in Texas. People drive a lot of trucks in Texas. There are all kinds of different trucks to choose from, but two stand out Ford and Chevrolet. I know one guy who is so loyal to Chevrolet that if you gave...
