

What the Dormouse Said: Lessons from Grown-ups from Children's Books

By A. Gash

Algonquin Books (division of Workman). Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, What the Dormouse Said: Lessons from Grown-ups from Children's Books, A. Gash, This one-of-a-kind collection reminds weary adults not to lose sight of the values and virtues they learned as kids. Here are over three hundred quotations from over two hundred well-loved children's books, such as Charlotte's Web, Peter Pan, Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone, Eloise, Sounder, Number the Stars, and Goodnight Moon, organized by topic, among them Acceptance, Goodness, Family Woes, and Growing Old. On Silence: "I assure you that you can pick up more information when you are listening than when you are talking:" - E. B. White, The Trumpet of the Swan. On Reverence: "Dying's part of the wheel, right there next to being born. Being part of the whole thing, that's the blessing:" - Natalie Babbitt, Tuck Everlasting. With clever illustrations from Pierre Le-Tan, here is a book to share with a friend or keep by your own bedside. It's the perfect gift for your sister, your mother, your brother, your nephew, your kid's teacher, your mailman, your priest, for the old lady next door, or for the baby just born. Most importantly, give it to...

Reviews

This publication is amazing. It is definitely basic but shocks in the fifty percent of your publication. You won't feel monotony at anytime of your own time (that's what catalogues are for concerning if you question me).
