Government that when the peace commissioners of Virginia to the conference at Washington and Lincoln to remove the Federal troops from Fort Sumter, the President replied: Why not? If you will guarantee to me the State of Virginia I shall remove the troops. A State for a fort is no bad business. The fall of Fort Sumter and the threatening prospect of a general war had cast a gloom over Washington, and none felt it more keenly than Schleiden. The chief interest of Bremen in America lay in the carrying trade with Europe. The red and white banner of the little Hanseatic Republic floated from the masts of more ships in American ports than the flag of any other foreign nation excepting Great Britain. To avert civil war and the consequent disruption of trade seemed to Schleiden a foremost duty. He became, therefore, an earnest advocate of mediation, but toward the end of April, 1861, the planned mediation of the diplomatic corps failed. In fact, on April 23 Seward published a...
