Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Through Storyland to Sunset Seas: What Four People Saw on a Journey Through the Southwest to the Pacific Coast Now this modest brochure is the recital of some of those things which one may see and learn on a trip from New Orleans to the Pacific Coast over the lines of the Southern Pacific Company. Every traveler will note points of interest and learn many new facts appealing particularly to him which have been overlooked or ignored here. But when you grow critical, remember that the author was not writing merely for our set, nor endeavoring to supply an encyclopedia. All this would be dreadfully dry reading if put in the form of prosaic narrative, so it has been told in dialogue to break the monotony, and the characters introduced have a purpose related to the facts which are sought to be brought out. Nor do the people go to bed at conventional hours, as in most well-regulated books of travel; for if they did, the continuity of the narrative would be broken, and, like the Persian prince Who travels on the enchanted carpet, you might miss much of interest while they slept. The description takes you Where the road leads - from the quaint his toric city of New Orleans through the bayou region of Louisiana, where summer lingers and poetry is the hand-maiden of romance, across the sugar and rice and cotton country, into the cathedral aisles of the vast pine forests. Then beyond, where the great plains of Texas reach to far-off sky lines, through quaint towns and cities, where foreign speech and manners mingle with our anglo-saxon civilization. By the pillared Canon of the Rio Grande the...
