Soaring West, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Joe Karam was born to transcend, but perhaps not to fly. When at twenty-seven his quest for freedom led him to set foot in a glider for the first time, he was overcome with fear and desire. Nothing seemed to have prepared him for such a formidable test of courage, nor did he know anything about Charlie, the taciturn flight instructor he had just entrusted with his life. And yet the sky kept calling. A didactic memoir and a passionate love letter to aviation, Danger and Poetry unites heart and mind to celebrate the pursuit of dreams and the power of teachers. Particularly recommended for: - Individuals curious to learn about the joys and challenges of gliding and soaring in a sailplane - Prospective or existing aviators interested in the mental aspects of the pilot training journey - Novice or student pilots eager to compare notes on flight training basics and early milestones - Airplane pilots aspiring to upgrade to more affordable and more silent aerial experiences - Young freedom lovers, who in many countries can legally fly solo in a glider at age 14 - Flight instructors (especially CFI-G) seeking relevant reading material for their students - Fixed-base operators (FBO) looking to stock, display, and retail enticing products.
