We see through the eyes of Alexa a 7 year old girl how she and her brother Joey 10 cope with the separation and divorce of their parents especially at Christmas. Children often wish they could spend the whole time with both parents and feel sadness and guilt when they are not with the other parent. Learning the True Meaning of Gift Giving . The message this book brings is that although material gifts are great - gifts from the heart, of oneself, made by the person are more precious and will be remembered long after you have outgrown the sweater or the toy. And it applies whether your parents are separated or together. Reading and Creating with Your Child . This book is not only a story to be read with your child but an activity for children, and for children together with their parents. Nothing develops a bond or connection more than creating something beautiful together - the craft and the memories.
