R. 10650): Prepared for the Use of the Senate Committee on Finance 1 Short title, etc. - The act is to be cited as the Revenue Act of 1962. 2 Investment credit. - Under the House-passed bill an investment credit against tax liability is provided. It generally is 7 percent (3 percent in the case of certain public utilities) of investments in new tangible personal property and most other depreciable real property except buildings and structural components of buildings. No credit is allowed for property with a useful life of less than 4 years. For property with a life of 4 to 6 years, one-third of the investment is taken into account; for property of 6 to 8 years, two-thirds is taken into account; and for property with longer lives, the full amount of the investment is taken into account. Purchases of used property, up to $50,000 worth, also is eligible for the credit. The credit may offset tax liability in full up to $25,000, but above that point the...
