Congressional Sales Office, 2002. OCLC Number: (OCoLC)49929774 Subject: Church charities -- Government policy -- United States. Excerpt: . . . 11 if an individual comes to us and does not have their GED or a high school diploma, we work feverishly to get this accomplished. Im happy to report that at the one center that I have been privi-leged to be the director of for 13 years in Pennsylvania, if a person comes to us with a fifth-grade reading level, within 6 to 8 months we can graduate him with his complete GED, and right now we have better than a 90 percent graduation ratio of those who have this need, and we are very grateful for this, because we feel it is not only good to help an individual better their life and change their lifestyle, but we need to better prepare them so they can go forth and make a healthy living in their field of service. We also have contact with one particular vo-tech college in the State of Pennsylvania, Stevens Vo-Tech College in Lancaster Coun-ty, where many of our graduates go there for a 2-year education in vo-tech, and I was privileged to be there just a couple weeks ago and see three of our students graduate. We have systems of support and we have a definite financial ac-countability. We feel this is very important to running any min-istry, program, or whatever it may be. The majority of operating funds is raised by the Teen Challenge centers from churches, com-munity organizations, and businesses, and individual people in their areas....
