Excerpt from More Reasons for a Reform in Parliament: Contained in Letters to the Following Persons, Viz. To the President of the Society for the Relief and Discharge of Persons Imprisoned for Small Debts; To Mr. Justice Ashhurst, on His Charge to the Grand Jury I have received your Letter, entitled, One Penny-worth of Truth, which I think very dear, when I confider the contents. It grieves me much to obfcrove, that your fentiments are totally altered 51 you formerly ufed to be a true friend to liberty, but it feems now, Thomas, that you are the advocate, and I fear, the penfioned advocate for Defporifin: You appear to be much offended at the F rench, for telling us, All mankind are equal; and you fay it is a lie - but I fay, Thomas, It is true, for all men are equal in their rigbts, and to they are in the eye of the law; but the F rench have never faid, as you have artfully faid for them, that all men are equal, or ought to be equal in their properties...
