SECOND LIFE (WILL FINCH MYSTERY THRILLER SERIES) (VOLUME 4)DOWNLOAD

Catchword Publishing. Paperback. Condition: New. 348 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.9in. 1978, Jonestown. 909 dead two children survive. Where are they now? Two children scramble through a remote jungle to escape the madness of Jonestown. When they return to America they're given new names. A fresh start. Almost forty years later Will Finch stumbles across an abandoned Armani jacket in an inner-city San Francisco playground. He soon learns that the jacket holds a secret. A cryptic message that tears his life apart and threatens to make him the latest victim of the Jonestown massacre. Inspired by true events, Second Life will keep you bolted to your chair until you reach the final sentence. This uncompromising noir murder mystery catapults you on a mesmerizing journey from an historic catastrophe to a prophecy of mass annihilation. The children went first, died first. But imagine if two escaped, returned to the US, were given new identities, the chance of a second life. How would it all turn out? Would they escape the memory of Jonestown, embrace the rituals of a normal life, grow up, have families, pay taxes, argue with the TV or would they become occult messengers of the fatal theosophy preached by the Reverend Jim Jones? This is the question, the premise of D. F. Bailey's latest psychological thriller with a twist, Second Life. Lawrence Russell, author of Radio Brazil and Author Q and A with D. F. Bailey: Your title, Second Life, hints at something more than a dreary 9-to-5 existence. How does it fit into your thriller series DFB: The title is derived from an ancient quote by Confucius: We have two lives, and the second begins when we realize we only have one. When I first read that sentence, I thought, now here's a different way of looking...
