Or maybe it s the running girl who crashed through his window at three in the morning with a desperate plea for help. It s definitely not the parents who tried to leave him in a boarding school in France or the money he walked away from to cut himself off from them. But needing is a funny thing. Sometimes it s the ones you want to run from that you need the most. King of Forgotten Clubs is a novella of approximately 60 pages and the sequel to Queen of Broken Hearts.
