Running, as an activity for the bored or routine of fitness enthusiasts, is not a grand undertaking. You buy yourself some shoes, find a place to run, and then you run - for however long you want, at whatever speed you want. Anyone can pick up running at any time what-so-ever and there will be a litany of mental and physical benefits; mental equity can improve, as can mood, overall health and fitness can be bettered even with an intermittent, inconsistent running schedule. For some, however, a little running training here and there is simply not enough. Running a 5k, or a marathon, is a grand undertaking. It s something you will need to prepare for in order to succeed. It s something that can injure you more than your average running session, with the potential to harm your health...
