Excerpt from A Retrospect of Fifty Years, Vol. 1 It was just at the time when I was made a Cardinal by Pope Leo XIII that the rise of the Labor Unions in America brought about what might have been a crisis in the life of the American Church. For some years the Church stood at the crossroads. It had to choose between allying itself with what looked like elements of disaster and revolution, or consenting to a theory of economics which could not be justified upon Christian principles. The duty had been laid upon it of preserving society, the rights of property and at the same time protecting the rights of individuals to the fruits of their labors; also of protecting the poor from the encroachment of uncontrolled capital.
