Excerpt from The American University Bulletin; April, 1940, Vol. 15: College of Arts and Sciences, School of Public Affairs (Undergraduate Division); Catalog Number for 1940-41 Session The American University is a Christian institution, free from all sectarian bias in teaching and administration. Various denominations are represented both in the faculty and the Board of Trustees, and its student body, while preponderantly of the Protestant faith, includes also young men and women of other creeds. With this non-sectarian character and liberal purpose, the work of instruction throughout the University is carried on by a body of men and women who are adequately trained in their subjects, who are imbued with a genuine spirit of learning and teaching, who are devoted to high ideals of personal and social character, and who desire to be of the largest service in training men and women not only in academic learning but for lives of practical usefulness.
