Excerpt from Seventeenth Annual Report of the Registrar-General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages in England, 1856 In the Scorn eastern tsts (il) the health of the people was various. Amongst its five counties iumpshire was rather unfortunate, its deaths risi to age, which, though not remarkably in excess, is more than in an of the our corresponding quarters. Southampton, which had been fatally visited y small-pox in the early part of the year, continued to suffer from this distemper, which recently, however, has abated. At Kingston, in the same county, and Landport the disease showed no abatement in the last quarter; while scarlatina and typhus prevailed in the former place, and low fever was common at Newport in the Isle of Wight. Kent and Berkshire enjoyed more than usual exemption from fatal disease. The number of deaths in the second division was 7984; a great reduction on the unhealthy spring of 1853; but the return is not very satisfactory as compared with those of ordinary years. The south aaxn division lost 6236 lives, the number of deaths in the same quarter of the...
