Musings of a Madman is a compilation of poetry stretching from a meager existence in New Yorks East Village with Allen Ginsberg and other such poets to Paris and environs and finally Colombia. It is an expose of the very guts of the creative mind with its madness, its hunger its suffering, culminating in a crescendo within existence where the end does justify the means. The poems are extremely diverse, some easygoing some serious, most devouring the beauty of life and its prize and pain yet all capturing the verve and passion of Greenwich Village in the early 60s.
