Excerpt: . . . 11 I do have to say that what happened there was absolutely no sur-prise to me whatsoever. Anyone who has been through the electoral process before knows how easy it is for mistakes to occur, typically using poll workers who do it only a few times a year, and in fact, in my very first election, there was a problem because my oppo-nents listing and mine were switched in one polling place. I still won, but there was that problem, and it could have swung the elec-tion. The - it is very important for us to ensure the integrity of the voting process, and I must add I am particularly concerned about the possibilities of fraud, even though those of you testifying here today obviously are not the sort of persons who would commit voter fraud, but there is, I believe,...
