LANGSTON S MOON (PAPERBACK)

Bellmurry, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Grace Linderholm (illustrator). Print ed.. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .When little Langston sees a big harvest moon for the first time, he is mesmerized. To him the moon looks like a big, creamy, dreamy, sugar-cookie close enough to touch. He s not interested in learning facts about his moon, but simply wants to run outside and see the moon every night. Alas, the weather does not cooperate. A cloudy night followed by many snowy ones hide Langston s moon for a long time. When the moon finally reappears, it is a thin sliver of light with a few small stars around it. Mommy, who had been unaware of Langston s concerns, explains that the moon is attached to the earth, as if tied to us by a long string. Sometimes looking full and other times appearing smaller, the moon will always be our closest neighbor in the sky. She tells him that men walked on the moon years ago and found it to be a big, dusty rock, not a tasty sugar cookie. And they didn t see a single sky monster. Langston realizes that the science and history of his moon are even more exciting than his fantasies. Now he wants to learn more about the moon and perhaps even travel...
