Yet, Instagram is a tool, a launching platform to create bigger things and share amongst an audience that which we have to share. It is also a method by which to become aware of what we are tuning into, and a form of self reflection. How does what I post, or who I follow, reflect on who I am? We can utilize Instagram for what we really are trying to achieve with it, utilizing it as a platform for what we choose to share. And in essence, what it is and what it can further grow into, as a community of support, growth, learning, and user controlled thought provocation and information sharing that is our own community based database. Instagram emerged as our way to blow past all the bullshit around us, and say, fuck this shit . Oh wait, I need these.
