Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Marina Andrews (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Subtitle: The Sea In My Blood Marina Andrews is the proud granddaughter of Titanic Survivor; Charles Edward Andrews, who served on board the luxury liner as second class assistant saloon steward. This book was specifically written for Marina s family, to prevent Charlie s amazing true life and times of his Maritime history, fading into a pile of forgotten memories! Born in Liverpool in 1893, my grandfather, Charles Edward Andrews was just an ordinary lad, from a basic family lifestyle, who grew up with a passion for people and an ambition for the world. One of Charlie s biggest dreams of becoming a proud seaman, meeting people from all walks of life, serving on the finest of vessels, sailing the high seas, finally came true. Amazingly though, of all the experiences Charlie endured at sea, not one event could compare to the most traumatic: Titanic s lifeboat number sixteen! Throughout his seafaring years, Charlie battled on through many life threatening events, including the sinking of Titanic, and still continued to serve at sea: braving the oceans through two world...
