

Journey Out Returning (Paperback)

By William Fell-Holden

Troubador Publishing, United Kingdom, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Journey Out Returning is a street-life story of struggle, sexual discovery, friendship and community told within the 1960s, a decade of `flower-power and `love-ins . Set against a background of the music of the Beatles Sgt Pepper s Lonely Hearts Club Band ; The Small Faces Itchycoo Park , the bursting forth of Pink Floyd and many other bands and singers, William Fell-Holden s memoir captures his personal history and links this to the major events of the decade. William recounts a time of youthful bliss, taking readers on a journey of self-discovery to his past to find a core meaning in his life. He recalls how the 1960s gave its mark of joy, freedom and mind-expansion; imaginations eagerly feeding from a feast of new ideas, all hopeful and colourful for a new world of peace, pleasure and love. Travelling back to the county of William s birth, on the Fylde coast of Lancashire, readers will find a story of friendships and a community of people that helped William to regain his strength after an emotional collapse. Just as the decade was split apart by the...
