Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .When I started writing this poetry collection I was looking for a mirror that reflects the invisible, the intangible images and feelings. I was looking for a mirror that helps me to reverse the subconscious image in state of mind, and emotions in the state of uncertainty. I was trying to see the thin thread between light and darkness. I was trying to reach this deep point inherent in the human soul cave, to flip it between my hands to see its details, to know its secrets and to sail into its quibbles. But the more I thought I was approached by! The more I found myself moved far in its deep- ocean with no end. Life is a large mirror, and what we see through it, is just a reflection of our actions and our behaviours. Therefore sometimes we see beautiful reflections of the images, and sometimes we see the ugliness. In my book, Mirrors of Mud, I was looking for those images that are still pure and bright in the human clay, those images that in the dark depths, in the calm waters, and in the mirrors that reflect the thin thread between the world of light and darkness.
