Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from History of Texas, Vol. 4: Fort Worth and the Texas Northwest Edition J. A. Douglas Smith. A highly successful oil operator and a pioneer in the oil development of Wichita County. J. A. Douglas Smith, of Burkhurnett, has never been a soft-handed, white-collar man, but grew up inured to the work and hardships of the cattle range, and acquired initiative, self-reliance and resourcefulness in a business even more uncertain and requiring fully as much nerve as operating for oil. He was born in Wise County. Texas, in 1870. At that time Wise County was well out toward the frontier and the fear of Indian incursion had not yet subsided. His parents, B. M. and Margaret (Shinn) Smith, now deceased, were early settlers in Texas. His father was a native of Mississippi and served with a regiment from that state throughout the four years of the Confederate war. In January, 1870, he brought his family to Texas and settled in the Pleasant Valley section of Wise County, about two miles from old Bridgeport and about...
