AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2008. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Eyes of Man is a science fiction phantasy novel about good and evil. The novel is so long it had to be cut in to two volumes, Book 1 and Book 2. This is Book 2. Earth is invaded by a swarm of big white balls from space. Some of them land on earth, some of them orbit earth. Earth goes wild with fear! But nothing happens! The big white balls just sit there all over the world. Why did the big white balls come to earth? No one knows! Later the the big spaceballs suddenly begin to spew smaller spaceballs of all sizes into the air from the tops of each bit spaceball like an endless stream of bubbles. Months later small spaceballs the size of baseballs suddenly begin to hover next to the people s right shoulders. The little spaceballs are round flying robots. They are calledd Eyes of One by the robots because they belong to just one person! They are The Eyes of Man! For the first time in the history of the world each person has a Guardian Angel, a little white spaceball robot to protect them from the evil of the world with a red ray called a stingray that knocks people down and out to awaken to agony for about an hour as punishment for being evil! As time goes by the people learn that each person s starball robot Eye of One reveals what kind of person that person is, good or evil by turning black for evil; dark gray for not as evil as black; light grey for mostly good with a little bad; and white for very good! Most people s starball...
